

More About Life Groups

- What is the purpose of Life Groups?
  - Life Groups are the primary way that we:
    - Encourage and challenge each other to grow in faith
    - Develop friendships within the church community
    - Experience life change in community
- What should I expect at a weekly Life Group gathering?
  - Discussion of the weekend message
  - Exploring the Bible
  - Consideration of topics we each face every day.
  - Use of Study Guides which will be available online at 1 pm on Sundays
- When do groups meet?
  - Groups are available on different days, in different locations, for different stages of life.
- What kinds of Life Groups are available?
  - Current Categories on the Website are as follows:
    - Couples
    - Families
    - Men
    - Mixed
    - Singles
    - Women
    - Young Adults
- Where do Life Groups meet?
  - Groups are intended to meet in homes whenever possible.
- What if I miss the weekend message at Orchard Hill?
  - The weekend message will be available online for viewing or listening by 1 pm on Sundays.
- What if I have never been in a Life Group before and would like to give it a try?
  - Try a Life Group Community!
  - The evening begins with an all-group gathering of multiple Life Groups in similar stages of life, followed by individual Life Group meetings.
  - Young Adults meet on Mondays, Intergenerational meet on Tuesdays, and Young Families with Children meet on Fridays.
- What if I want to find out more about starting a Life Group?
  - Learn more about becoming a Life Group Leader by contacting a member of the team:
    - Mike Hatch, Life Group Director, mhatch@orchardhillchurch.com
    - Kay Warheit, Women's Life Groups, kwarheit@orchardhillchurch.com
    - Cindy Adams, Life Group Connector, cadams@orchardhillchurch.com